23 Wharf Road, Cape Traverse, Prince Edward Island, C0B1X0

This spacious executive style family home, located just a minutes walk from Cape Traverse beach; has a self contained 2 bedroom apartment on a lower level which is the perfect place for an extended family. The main level is open concept living and contains: a large modern kitchen with an extra pantry, a breakfast island, an eating area with patio doors leading out to a screened in sun room and deck, a spacious living room with propane fireplace, and a formal dining area off of the living room. The spacious front entry with a half bath, leads to a double car heated garage. A wide stairway takes you to the upper level of the home which features: a master bedroom with large walk through his and hers closets and a full en suite, plus another full bath, two additional large bedrooms, a laundry area, and large family room over the garage. The basement 2 bedroom apartment with a full bath, laundry area and open concept living/dining/kitchen would make great in law suite or can be rented to help supplement the mortgage payments. The home has Geo-thermal heat and an electric fireplace. (id:4285)
